Graphite

60x120cm

A rectangular tile sample with a dark, charcoal-colored, textured surface, showing natural stone variations. It is positioned diagonally in the upper right area of the page, overlapping with the other tile samples.

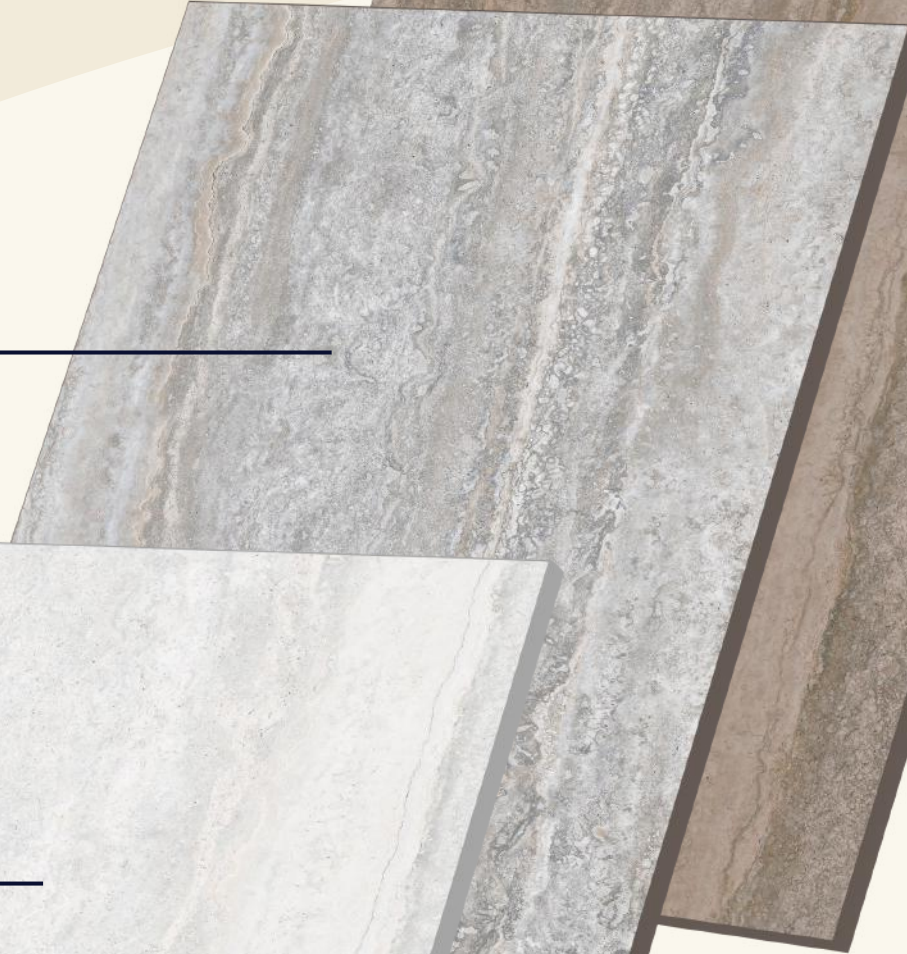

Noce

60x120cm

A rectangular tile sample with a warm, brown, wood-grain-like texture. It is positioned diagonally in the middle of the page, overlapping with the Graphite and Pearl tiles.

Pearl

60x120cm

A rectangular tile sample with a light gray, veined texture, resembling natural stone. It is positioned diagonally in the lower middle of the page, overlapping with the Noce and White tiles.

White

60x120cm

A rectangular tile sample with a light gray, veined texture, similar to the Pearl tile but with slightly different veining patterns. It is positioned diagonally in the lower left of the page, overlapping with the Pearl tile.
